7 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
8 WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
9 AT SEATTLE

10 FAYEZ MANSOR, et al.,

CASE NO. C23-0347JLR

11 Plaintiffs,

ORDER

12 v.

13 UNITED STATES CITIZENSHIP
14 AND IMMIGRATION SERVICES,
15 et al.,

Defendants.

16 Before the court is Defendants' June 11, 2025 status report apprising the court of 17 Defendant U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services' ("USCIS") progress in reviewing 18 the Prima Facie Eligibility Streamlined Case Processing ("PFE SCP") system for 19 adjudicating concurrently-filed applications for employment authorization and temporary
20 protected status ("TPS"), which is the subject of the parties' cross motions for summary
21 judgment. (6/11/25 Status Report (Dkt. # 113); see Plfs. MSJ (Dkt. # 89); Defs. MSJ
22 (Dkt. # 92).) The parties' cross motions have been stayed since February 2025 pending

1 USCIS's review of the TPS and TPS PFE systems. (See 2/18/25 Stay Order (Dkt. # 101);
2 3/17/25 Stay Order (Dkt. # 104); 4/15/25 Stay Order (Dkt. # 107); 4/29/25 Stay Order
3 (Dkt. # 109); 5/13/25 Stay Order (Dkt. # 111).)

4 In their June 11, 2025 status report, Defendants represent that "USCIS leadership
5 has decided to endeavor to resume SCP for TPS PFE determinations" and that "[p]rior to 6 reinitiating SCP, USCIS must test reliability, accuracy, program integrity, and confirm
7 adequate controls[.]" (6/11/25 Status Report at 3 (citing Nolan Decl. (Dkt. # 113-1) ¶ 6.).
8 Defendants accordingly ask the court to stay the parties' cross motions for an additional 9 30 days, "at which point [USCIS] will be able to restart SCP for TPS PFE determinations
10 again." (Id.)

11 In light of the foregoing, the court concludes that an additional 30-day stay of the 12 parties' cross motions—until July 11, 2025—is appropriate. The Clerk is DIRECTED to 13 reschedule the parties' cross motions for summary judgment (Dkt. ## 89, 92) for July 11,
14 2025. The court understands that the parties' cross motions will be ripe for review on 15 that date. Defendants may, but are not required, to submit an optional status report on 16 that date.

17 Dated this 12th day of June, 2025.
